Good Morning Ladies and Gentlemen, I extend a warm welcome to all of you at this 8th Annual General Meeting of the company.

We meet at the end of another challenging year of your company, which has been moving ahead confidently on the road to progress, prosperity, growth, expansion and development. With its forward-looking vision, your company has been growing remarkably well, successfully achieving its various targets over the past three decades. During the year, we set certain objectives, goals and targets, and achieved them with relative ease despite several challenges on our way.

As I write, I firmly believe that excelling in the business operations will be necessary, but not sufficient. To maintain a long term presence and to grow profitably, we will require company to be even more focused on maintaining the quality. It is our diversified segmental presence which adds to our sustainable performance. We continue to venture into new projects keeping in mind our target audience- middle and low income groups. Further, we have some new projects which we expect to launch in near future.

I must also add that the successful continuation of business strategies relies on the commitment of our outstanding employees and teamwork. Excellent co-operation from our shareholders, customers, partners and business associates continue to play a significant role in our growth. As we move ahead to another orbit of growth and strategy, the future looks promising and we are confident that the contribution of our product innovation with the skill sets of our team will continue to deliver excellence and create shareholder value through expansion, investment and organic as well as inorganic growth.
